3RD ANNUAL GATEWAY
EA REGIONAL GATHERING

Time: 9:30am to 2:30pm

Earnestly Contending for the Faith

Jude's appeal to the church was an urgent call to protect the church from various false teachers who had crept into the church. What is "the faith" that we are called to contend for and how should we do that? Throughout church history we have been called to contend for the Gospel but what does that look like in our times?

David Peterson is our featured speaker. David has pastored in Indiana at Salem Church of Darmstadt for almost 30 years. Before ministering at Salem, David was a chaplain resident at Deaconess Hospital in downtown Evansville. David has an M-Div with honors from Oral Roberts University Graduate School of Theology and Missions and a Bachelors of Theology from the International Bible College. David is married to Sue Peterson and has 3 terrific children and is also a grandfather. David is ordained through the EA.

Workshops

I. What is Our Evangelical Faith?

In this workshop we will discover the biblical and historical roots of the faith practiced by the German Evangelicals who founded many of our churches in the Midwest. We will try and answer the question of how this history impacts the faith formation of people in our churches today.

II. Apologetics and Evangelism

In this workshop you'll learn some practical ways to share the Gospel with others. How do we become more confident in sharing our faith with those around us?

III. Preaching and Worship

In this workshop you'll learn some helpful tips on preaching and leading worship. How do we preach most effectively in today's age?
